
Communication Assistance

Yavapai Regional Medical Center provides language interpretation and translation services for patients, family members, or companions with Limited English Proficiency. The following devices are available to help communicate effectively:

- Translation Phones
- YRMC Approved Interpreters
- Tablets that can connect to a live interpreter