

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

George Thomas Rizk, M.D.
Invasive Cardiovascular Medicine

Education

B.S. Zoology, 1976–1980, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas

1981–1985, University of Autonomo of Juarez Medical School, Juarez, Mexico,

M.D., 1985–1988, Creighton University School of Medicine, Omaha, Nebraska

Post Doctoral Training

Internship and Residency, Internal Medicine, 1988–1992; Chief Resident 1991–1992, Creighton University Affiliated Hospitals, Omaha, Nebraska

Cardiovascular Fellowship, 1992–1995, Creighton University, Omaha, Nebraska

Medical Director Appointments

Cardiopulmonary Lab Director, 2010–2019

Cardiac Cath Lab Director, 2000–Present

Licenses

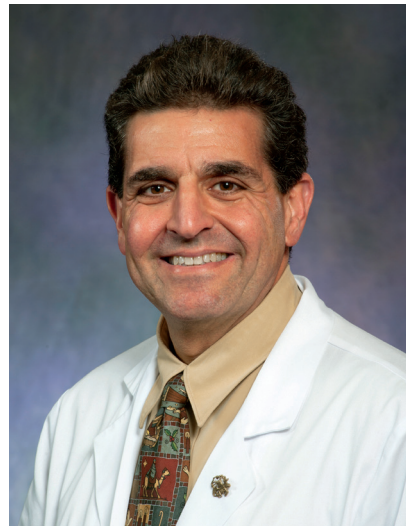

Arizona, #23395

Certifications

Board Certified, Cardiovascular

Disease Board Certified, Nuclear

Cardiology Board Certified, Echocardiography

Professional Affiliations

Alpha Omega Medical Honor Society

American College of Cardiology

American College of Nuclear Cardiology

Fellow Council on Clinical Cardiology

American Society of Echocardiography

American Society of Nuclear Cardiology

Awards

Aesculapian Humanitarian Award

Alpha Omega Medical Honor Society

Golden Apple Resident Teaching Award, 1990 & 1991

Syntex/Medicine Award of Excellence in Clinical Practice

Outstanding Senior Medical Resident

Yavapai Regional Medical Center Physician of the Year, 2004