

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Grace Eunjin Lee, MD
Palliative Medicine

Education

Fellowship, Hospice and Palliative Medicine,
2021–2022, Mayo Clinic, Phoenix, Arizona

Residency, Internal Medicine, 2018–2021,
St. Barnabas Hospital, Bronx, New York

Doctor of Medicine, 2017, Ben-Gurion
University of Negev, Be'er-Sheva, Israel

Undergraduate, Bachelor of Arts, Biological Sciences, 2011, Northwestern University,
Evanston, Illinois

Professional Affiliations

American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine

American Board of Internal Medicine

American Medical Association

Center to Advance Palliative Care

JAMA Network

Certifications

American Board of Internal Medicine,
Board Eligible

Hospice and Palliative Medicine,
Board Eligible

Licensure

Arizona Medical Board Board

Research Experience

Samsung Medical Center, 2012,
Seoul, South Korea

Children's Memorial Research Center,
2010–2011, Chicago, Illinois

Publications

International Urogynecology Journal

The Long-Term Impact of Medical Complications in Pregnancy: A Window into Maternal and Fetal Future Health (chapter author)

Volunteer Service

Physicians for Human Rights, 2015–2016,
West Bank/Tel Aviv, Israel

Grace Garden Ministries, 2013, Jos, Nigeria

Hanawon North Korean Refugee Center,
2012, Anseong, South Korea

Evangel VVF Center, Bingham University
Teaching Hospital, 2010–2011, Jos, Nigeria