

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Greg S. Keller, MD, FABOS

Orthopedic Surgery

Education

Fellowship, Shoulder Surgery, 2000,
Maricopa Medical Center, Phoenix, Arizona

Fellowship, Sports Medicine, 2000,
Institute for Bone and Joint Disorders,
Phoenix, Arizona

Residency, Orthopedic Surgery, 1999,
The Albany Medical Center, Albany,
New York

Medical Doctorate, 1994, Pennsylvania State
University, College of Medicine, Hershey,
Pennsylvania

Bachelor of Arts, Biology and Chemistry,
1990, Bucknell University, Lewisburg,
Pennsylvania

Certifications

Fellow, American Board of Orthopedic
Surgery

Specialty Areas

Shoulder and Elbow Surgery

Sports Medicine

Arthroscopy

Knee Reconstruction

Upper and Lower Extremity Trauma

Academic Appointments

Assistant Professor, Orthopedic Surgery,
2012-2018, Creighton University,
Phoenix, Arizona

Clinical Faculty, Orthopedic Surgery,
2003-2005, Maricopa County Orthopedic
Residency Program, Phoenix, Arizona

Associate Professor, Orthopedic Surgery,
2000-2003, Geisinger Medical Center
Orthopedic Residency Program,
Phoenix, Arizona

Clinical Faculty and Chief, Adult
Reconstruction Service, 2000, Maricopa
Medical Center Orthopedic Residency
Program, Phoenix, Arizona

Professional Affiliations

Patients' Choice Award, 2012

Top Doctor Award, 2010

The John Charnley Award, 1996