

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Jacob Gelberg, MD, FRCPC

Pulmonology

Education

Fellowship, Interventional Pulmonology,
2013, University of Calgary, Calgary, Alberta

Certification Fellowship, Respiriology, 2012,
Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, Ottawa, Ontario

Fellowship, Respiriology, 2012, McMaster
University, Hamilton, Ontario

Certification Fellowship, Internal Medicine, 2011, Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, Ottawa, Ontario

Residency, Internal Medicine, 2010,
Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, Ottawa

Residency, Internal Medicine, 2010,
Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario

Medical School, 2007, Queen's University,
Kingston, Ontario

Undergraduate, Bachelor of Science, 2003,
York University, Toronto, Ontario

License

Arizona State Medical License

Professional Affiliations

American College of Chest Physicians

Canadian Thoracic Society

Ontario Thoracic Society

Awards & Honors

AFP Clinician Educator Award,
Department of Medicine, 2015,
St. Joseph's Healthcare Hamilton, Ontario

Clinical Educator Award for excellence in resident teaching, 2015, St. Joseph's Healthcare Hamilton, Ontario

Quality Award for establishing the Malignant Pleural Effusion Clinic, 2014,
Cancer Quality Council of Ontario

Chief Medicine Resident, 2010,
Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario

Department of Medicine Professor's Award,
2010, Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario

Edgar Forrester Scholarship, 2003

Research & Publishing

Dr. Gelberg has been involved in important research studies focused on improving care for people with chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD), lung cancer and other medical conditions. He also has published articles in a variety of peer-reviewed journals and served as an expert speaker at leading medical society meetings.