

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

John A. Obudzinski, DO, FACOI
Internal Medicine

Education

Residency, Internal Medicine, 1975–1978,
Detroit Osteopathic Hospital, Detroit,
Michigan

Internship, 1974–1975, Detroit Osteopathic
Hospital, Detroit, Michigan

Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine, 1974, Chicago
College of Osteopathic Medicine – Midwestern
University, Downers Grove, Illinois

Undergraduate, Bachelor of Science, 1970,
Albright College, Reading, Pennsylvania

Certifications

American Osteopathic Board of Internal Medicine

Fellow, American College of Osteopathic
Internists

Academic Appointments

Board of Governors, Midwestern University,
Downers Grove, Illinois

Clinical Associate Professor, Finch University of Health Sciences/The Chicago Medical School, North Chicago, Illinois

Adjunct Clinical Assistant Professor,
Midwestern University, College of Allied
Health Professions, Downers Grove, Illinois

Clinical Assistant Professor of Medicine,
College of Health Sciences, Marquette
University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Preceptor, Department of Family Practice/
Physician Assistant Program, University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health, Madison, Wisconsin

Professional Affiliations

American Osteopathic Association

American College of Osteopathic Internists

Military Service

Vietnam War, 1963–1966

Patient Care Philosophy

I believe in patient-centered care. To me, this means keeping patients well through preventive medicine and customizing the care I provide people with chronic diseases. Woven into this patient-centered approach is compassion. Throughout my medical career, patients have shown me that they value individualized medical care delivered with empathy.