

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Paul J. Williamson, Jr., PhD, MSN, ACNP, RN

Pulmonology

Education

Doctorate of Nursing Education, 2013,
Capella University, Minneapolis, Minnesota

Master of Science in Nursing,
Acute Care Nurse Practitioner Program,
2002, Vanderbilt University School of Nursing, Nashville, Tennessee

Bachelor of Arts, 1990, Pastoral Theology,
Life Pacific University, Los Angeles,
California (ordained as a minister, 1994)

Associate of Applied Science in Respiratory
Therapy, 1984, GateWay Community
College, Phoenix, Arizona

Licenses & Certifications

Registered Nurse and Nurse Practitioner,
Arizona State Board of Nursing

Arizona State Board of Respiratory Care

Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support,
American Heart Association

Basic Life Support, American Heart Association

Professional Affiliations & Leadership Roles

Arizona Nurses Association, Chapter 2 –
Tucson, Arizona, Vice President

Middle Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, School of Nursing,
Admissions Committee and Curriculum
Committee

Tennessee Nurses Association, District 15,
Vice President, 2014

Central Tennessee Chapter of the American
Assembly for Men in Nursing, President, 2010–2013

Sigma Theta Tau International, Xi Alpha
Chapter, Leadership Succession Chair,
2010–2014

Community Service

Established and conducted a medical service project, providing medical and nursing care to an underserved population in Guatemala.