

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Victoria C. Valdecanas, M.D.

Family Medicine

Education

Residency, 1993–1995, Department of Family Medicine, University of Tennessee, Memphis, Tennessee

Internship, 1992–1993, Department of Family Medicine, Warren Hospital Phillipsburg, New Jersey

Residency, 1989–1991, Department of Family Medicine, US Naval Hospital, Olongapo City, Philippines

Doctor of Medicine, 1986, Dr. Nicanor Reyes Medical Foundation, Far Eastern University, Manila, Philippines

Undergraduate, B.S. Medical Technology, 1982, Dr. Nicanor Reyes Medical Foundation, Far Eastern University Manila, Philippines

Licenses

Arizona State Medical License, Active

FLEX and ECFMG, 1991 and 1993

Certifications

American Board of Family Medicine, Board Certified since 1995

Professional Associations

American Academy of Family Medicine
Arizona Academy of Family Medicine
Arizona Medical Association

Community Service

Primary care in underserved area, 1995–2000, West Phoenix and Buckeye, Arizona

Department Chair, Department of Family Medicine, 1999, Maryvale Hospital, Phoenix

Languages

English, Filipino

Special Interests

Cooking, traveling and hiking