

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Frank Colella, FNP

Occupational Medicine / Family Medicine

EDUCATION:

Doctor of Philosophy in Biology, 2013–2015,
University of Buffalo and Canisius College,
Online

Master of Science in Nursing, 2003–2004,
University of Phoenix, Phoenix, Arizona

Bachelor of Science in Nursing, 2003–2004,
University of Phoenix, Phoenix, Arizona

Bachelor of Science in Education and Biology, 1991–1993, Cortland College, Cortland,
New York

Associates of Arts in Nursing, 1979–1982,
Yavapai College, Prescott, Arizona

LICENSES:

Certified Family Nurse Practitioner, American Nurses Credentialing Center

Registered Nurse, Arizona State Board of Nursing

DEA License

CERTIFICATIONS:

CPR Pro, American Heart Association

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

American Nurses Credentialing Center
American Association of Nurse Practitioners
American Nurses Association
Internal Nurses Association
Emergency Nurses Association
National League for Nurses

TEACHING APPOINTMENTS:

Adjunct faculty for masters and doctorate level students, Northern Arizona University, University of Arizona, University of Phoenix and Grand Canyon University

HOBBIES:

Gardening, hiking, kayaking, motor and road cycling, mountain biking, cooking and spending time with family.

CLINICAL INTERESTS:

Family Medicine, Emergency Medicine,
Type II Diabetes, Chronic Kidney Disease,
Hypertension, COPD, Emphysema, Coronary
Artery Disease, Pediatric Medicine